Excerpt: .her guests, they easily perceived that her laugh was without mirth, and her smile was without serenity. VWhile Ella was thus a prey to unavailing anxiety, she received a summons from her lawyer to repair to London on business, as she was now of age, and her pre-sence was necessary in order to sign some papers. The occupation of business and change of scene could not have occurred at a more fortunate moment; and as Ella s London guests were on the eve of returning to the metropolis, her journey was was rendered as pleasant as it could be in her distressed state of mind, by their protection and society; and in London she might hope to hear or see something of Colonel Vane. Thither, therefore, she repaired full of anxious expectation, leav ing strict orders to have all letters sent after her to...
