Herb Kohl (Acting Chairman of the Committee), presiding. Present: Senator Kohl. Opening Statement of Senator Herb Kohl, Acting Chairman Senator Kohl. Good morning. Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. I m glad to have you all here today, and I hope that we will have a very important and informative hearing this morning. You know, if you ask most Americans what they feel is the most important issue facing our country and our Congress, health care is near the top of anybody s list. Indeed we all know the President and the First Lady are working very hard toward a national health care plan, the details of which we expect will be released sometime early this fall. Health care reform is certain to be one of the most debated issues of our time, and we know it will be indeed one of the most controversial. No matter what is decided in the health care reform there is one illness in our health care system that we cannot ignore. And this illness is fraud. It is literally bleeding our health care system into critical condition. Late last year the General Accounting Office released a very disturbing report. The General Accounting Office estimates that 10 percent of the dollars that we spend on health care in America are being stolen through waste, fraud, and abuse. This year it is estimated that $900 billion...
