Somewhere in England, at the foot of the South Downs in the county of Sussex, is a village where the Aristotles live. .or at least they used to at the beginning of the World, when everything was new before the arrival of the young man we today refer to as Father Time. In those early days, only the Wind knew the Aristotles. Who are or were the Aristotles? Well! They are a fun-loving community of sheep, who, when they are not being sheep climb the hill and lift into the air-despite the enormous picnic they have just eaten-and go sailing just like the clouds they resemble. When they are not behaving like clouds, the Aristotles live peacefully and sheep-like in their village cottages, where they consume every day: three breakfasts, a mid-morning snack, brunch, three lunches, and an enormous tea; followed by a high tea, supper, and a late-night snack to see them through until morning-when the ritual begins again. Read the hungry details! Join the Aristotles on their adventure with their friend, the Floating Island. And...
