Children's Drawings: Iconic Coding of the Environment (Hardback)

By Martin Krampen

Springer Science+Business Media, United States, 1991. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 1991 ed.. 234 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is dedicated to all those who love children and their wonderful, often surprising, drawings. This means it addresses all those interested in their developing capacity to produce iconic signs: parents, teachers, child psychologists, artists, architects (since building drawings are treated here), and semioticians at large-to name but a few potential readers. Because of the broad audience, I tried to keep scientific jargon to a minimum. Whenever this was unavoidable, I tried to explain the terms in such a way that even beginners in psychology could understand my arguments. I received the first impulse to think about a book like this from the International Year of the Child declared by the UN in 1979. In a first phase of the project, I obtained drawings of the six different building types treated in this book from more than 100 children aged 3-12 years in Turkey during a stay there as part of the faculty of Architecture of the Karadeniz Technical University in Trabzon under the auspices of the UN- ESCO/UNDP program TUR/75/012....
