Lighthouse Christian Publishing, Norman, Oklahoma, 1999. Trade Paperback. Book Condition: BRAND NEW. No Jacket. "It was the summer of 1969. The summer man first walked on the moon. the summer Nixon began withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam. The summer of Woodstock. And the summer Raven Jones and her twin brother, Robin were fourteen. Ever since their parents died seven years ago, they and their three older brothers--Pete, Merrill, and Charlie, have lived with their young guardian, Ross. They have the kind of house that other kids love to hang out at--with rock music always on the stereo, Beatles posters on the living room walls, and nobody to yell at you if you spill a little Coke on the couch or track a little dirt in on the carpet. Ross is only twenty-five, so there isn't much of a generation gap to bridge, and he's understanding about a lot of things that real parents aren't--understanding, but tough. For seven years, they've lived harmoniously together in this comfortable, relaxed atmosphere--up until that summer of 1969 when their whole world changes and domestic tranquility becomes a thing of the past. It's the summer they'll never forget, the one that changed their lives forever." - "Summary: Five parentless teenagers and their young guardian discover how becoming Christians helps then through the difficult times they face growing up in the late 1960's." Listing updated 4-29-2009. Size: 8vo - over 7¾" - 9¾" Tall.
