

Hollow

By Lee Doty

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The new novel from the bestselling author of Out of the Black! The year is 2119: Ash lives in a dead, hollow world. She is one of the few survivors of an apocalyptic plague called The Palsy that decimated the world almost a hundred years ago. The few remaining humans live out their empty days in withered bodies, unable to taste or smell and barely able to feel. They live in a permanent hospice, watched over by mechanical caretakers called Clerics. Like everyone else, Ash has amnesia. She remembers nothing before her last catastrophic seizure four years ago. In 2119, the only thing to do besides slouch toward the wheelchair and then the grave, is to enter The Hallowed World, an immersive virtual reality game run by the Clerics. In the Hallowed world, four-person teams of soldiers compete to complete missions and rise to the top of the leaderboards. Ash is a Phenom in The Hallow, the best player on the best team in the league. She is a living legend in a dying world. The year is...
